Hi Sarah,

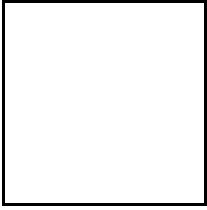

I'm writing in reference to the above, and the feared construction of dwellings on Fenay Bridge road by Elliott Estates.

I have witnessed the demolition of several historic barns and outbuildings, I couldn't see anything on the portal regarding this demolition.

This potential development is to the rear of my house (51 Fenay Bridge road) and has completely decimated the aspect. The foxes and the deer haven't been present since the demolition and I have had to deal with rats in my property since the work commenced.

Please can you clarify what is happening?

Kind regards
