Absolutely fantastic addition to the local community. This is the most affordable and accessible sauna available for miles around and having visited a couple of times I can absolutely say it's had a positive impact on my health and wellbeing already. The venue adds to the beauty of the canal and riverside, without detracting from them and the large sauna encourages friendly conversations. I've met people I probably never would have spoken to in the busy cafes, but slowing down and having a sauna together is a lovely way of getting to know other locals. Best type of networking I've been to! I've heard people exchange details about their businesses, talk about local groups, and recommend local services, so I genuinely think it's already proven to be a value add to the community, and I hope it's here for years to come. I'd encourage anyone involved in the planning process to give it a try - the team are lovely and accommodating, and it's a great way of relaxing with friends or strangers. Very much recommend. Thanks for reading.
