I'd like to show my support for Iglu Sauna and the application. It's a fantastic addition to Slaithwaite and a lovely use of the canal-side space that would otherwise be waste land! It's only a short walk from the village centre, but feels a world away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. Iglu offers real benefits for people's health and wellbeing, providing a welcoming space where people can relax, unwind, take time for themselves and connect with others. Having somewhere like this on our doorstep is incredibly valuable. Iglu has been thoughtfully created using natural materials that blend beautifully into the surroundings and respects the local environment. Overall, Iglu is a positive addition to Slaithwaite and the economy, bringing people together, supporting wellbeing and enabling people to reconnect with nature.
