The sauna seamlessly and positively impacts on the current site, with a beautiful outlook that blends with the woodland and lends a pleasing and intriguing visual aspect for both visitors and the local community. It's a business that has little impact on neighbouring residents, unless it be a positive one. It lends a magical glimmer in the evening, a pleasing visual impact on what was previous brown land, and brings visitors to the site who will also use the other local amenities. A very positive addition.
