The modern petrol station model is no longer limited to fuel provision, it functions as a high-turnover retail and fast-food destination, generating significant levels of short stay traffic, late night activity, and associated disturbance. The inclusion of a takeaway/ hot food element will intensify these impacts considerably, leading to higher levels of air pollution from stationary and slow moving vehicles, Noise and disturbance extending into evening and night time hours, Persistent littering. This proposal goes further by introducing a rear workshop and tyre garage. This represents a materially different and more intensive form of development, bringing with it additional concerns....
