To Planning department (Kerri) The surrounding area (Flockton) is subject to 7.5 tonne HGV restrictions intended to protect road safety and limit inappropriate heavy vehicle movements. Despite this, there is already evidence of HGV and fuel tanker activity within the restricted network, including deliveries to existing petrol stations and nearby commercial premises. These issues have been reported to the relevant authorities on multiple occasions, enforcement pressure already exists and that compliance is not consistently effective. The addition of a further petrol filling station would not be neutral. It would increase the frequency of tanker movements and commercial traffic within an already sensitive and partially non-compliant network, exacerbating existing problems rather than resolving them.
