Marsh is absolutely not an urban area. I am appalled at the horrible neon signage that has already been allowed on the main road, but for this to spread to the side streets and residential parts of Marsh is utterly unacceptable. This encroaching urbanisation is making me feel exceptionally stressed. This is not the nature of Marsh and never has been. The horrible, neon lighting is not what any resident should see from their windows either. I absolutely object in the strongest possible terms to this proposal.
