This place has been such an amazing space for me and my family where it has provided so much bemefit in terms of eduacation for my children activities for the youth and just a general sense of belonging which was much needed in this area. The team here has also been very accomaodating and has faced its fair bit of obstacles but has continues to provide that much needed space for me and my family whilst doing their best not to be a nusiance to neighbours etc which as you can appreciate is difficult to sometimes manage when dealing with people.
