am writing as a Muslim woman and a long-standing resident of Huddersfield to register my strong opposition to any plans that threaten the closure of our local mosque and the position of our Imam.

For a Muslim woman, the mosque is far more than just a place of worship; it is a sacred sanctuary and the absolute heart of our spiritual and daily lives. It provides a vital, safe space where women in our community gather for prayer, find mutual support, and connect with a trusted network of peers. The leadership and guidance of our Imam are essential to our households, providing the moral foundation that helps us raise our children and guide our youth to be positive, responsible members of society.
