| This place has been a pillar within our community. A place where I have met many friends and also helped out many people. I teach children here, about religion, morals and ethics, languages and build an overall community setting for children and women too. We have hosted many parties and events and it has been especially useful for those women who have just immigrated and are looking for friends who speak the same language or are more familiar, many women coming over struggle at first feeling lonely and outcasted, masjid iman community centre has been a place for people like this to make friends and have fun. | |
