I would like to express my full and unwavering support for the Iman Community Association, based at Waverley House, Waverley Road, Huddersfield, HD1 5NA, in recognition of the invaluable social and humanitarian role it plays within the local community.

The Association is far more than a place of worship. It is a vital community hub that brings people together, supports families, empowers young people, and fosters a spirit of unity, compassion, mutual respect, and understanding among individuals from diverse cultural and social backgrounds.

In this regard, I sincerely urge Kirklees Council to recognise and appreciate the Association’s significant contribution to the wider community and to engage constructively with its representatives in seeking a fair, positive, and sustainable solution that enables it to continue its meaningful work and essential services.

Preserving and supporting institutions such as the Iman Community Association is not merely about protecting a community space; it is an investment in social cohesion, community well-being, and the future of generations to come.
