The proposed planning application, I feel, will have a serious impact on the road bordering the area. Lady House Lane is narrow, there is a hair pin bend ; which vehicles approaching from either direction have a tendency to drive into the middle - several near misses on a good number of occasions. It is also a bus route which has a tendency to force vehicles to stop coming from the opposite direction. I am also aware that the collection of refuse on Lady House Lane was an issue as the size of the refuse collection vehicle was originally too large. I am also aware that the proposed application may well disrupt a habitat for local wildlife ; a number of bats can be observed on a nightly basis, a number of owls can be observed or heard on a regular basis, foxes are frequent visitors and occasionally
