i find it disgusting that a building steeped in such history can be put up for demolition for yet more housing when there is already houses stood empty or brown belt land that can be built upon, this is not just a pub (which are already and continue to close at an alarming rate) but a magnificent building rich in local heritage and should in my own and plenty of others opinions be preserved and kept as such, unfortunately i think politicians and councilors will only see pound signs and do whatever they please in a despicable act of greed yet again
