I believe this proposed demolition will have a negative effect on the character of the area. The pub was an important meeting place in 1812 for the luddites who played an important role in the industrial revolution. With the pub also featuring in the work of one of this country's most important novelists (Charlotte Bronte), it's important that we do not destroy this link to her work. Historical trails and cultural links bring people the area and give pride to people who live in it. Please preserve this important landmark.
