Subject: RE: GAIL - Rail embankment - reminder to respond to this please

Hi Elaine,

Sorry for the delay in responding. I have been away as it is half term.

I can confirm that contracts have now been exchanged between Farnley Estates and the Elliotts so that Farnley Estates now has control over the former railway line.

Kind Regards,

Chris

Morning Chris,

I have one more query re. the Lepton site from the inspector. See the email below.

Could you confirm that Farnley Estates are now in control of the railway embankment portion of the site allocation.

Kind Regards,

Elaine

Could you please ask the Council to confirm whether or not the railway embankment has been purchased by Farnley Estates to date - or not. At this stage there is no need to put the document on the website or do anything else with it.

Kind regards
